— BLACK ACTION HEROES ON FILM: MAR 30 - APR 5 —

Action heroes have been part of movies for practically as long as cinema has existed. This week we examine action heroes from the perspective of black cinema, where sometimes the heroes are law enforcers (Bad Boys, Cleopatra Jones), and other times they're targets that become unlikely heroes (The Brother from Another Planet, The Harder They Come).

BAD BOYS (1995)

2 cops must reclaim $100 million in heroin that was stolen from their station. The movie that made Will Smith and Martin Lawrence into movie stars.

CLEOPATRA JONES (1973)

She's a special agent who takes down the evil drug lord with the help of her martial arts skills and her community.

THE BROTHER FROM ANOTHER PLANET (1984)

The Brother is a mute alien who happens to resemble a black man and crash-lands in NYC. Two bounty hunters are on the hunt to bring The Brother home.

THE HARDER THEY COME (1972)

Jimmy Cliff comes to the city to make it big singing Reggae but ends up being taken advantage of and ends in a massive manhunt.

— PITTSBURGH JAPANESE FILM FESTIVAL: APRIL 6 - 19 —

ANTIPORNO (2016)

Sion Sono's take on the "Roman Porno" genre is a film-within-a-film that reveals layers of two actresses' personalities in this beautiful and sexually charged film.

SANJURO (1962)

Ronin Sanjuro uses his cunning and swordcraft to help a group of young men determined to defeat their town's corrupt Superintendent.

YO JIMBO (1961)

Ronin samurai finds himself in a town run by two warlords, and sets out to solve the problem by playing the warlords against each other.

GODZILLA (1954)

Giant monster begins a rampage that threatens to destroy Japan and the rest of the world. Can the monster be stopped before it's too late?

STRAY CAT ROCK: SEX HUNTER (1970)

Mako and her gang The Alleycats clash with racist macho pigs The Eagles after Mako starts dating an Afro-Japanese man.

YOUR NAME (2016)

2 high schoolers swap bodies randomly. They build a connection and eventually wish to meet, but something stronger may keep them apart.

— GUILLERMO DEL TORO: APRIL 20 - 26 —

We highlighting the work of the 2018 Academy Award winner for Best director, Guillermo Del Toro. Guillermo has gained a following by being equally adept at crafting Spanish-language dark fantasy films as he was with more traditionally American action flicks. This week we will give you an example of each of these genres, as well as his Best Picture winner from this past year, The Shape of Water.

BLADE 2 (2002)

Snipes stars in this exhilarating sequel as the human-vampire hybrid Blade and his efforts to protect humans from genocide-seeking vampires.

PAN'S LABYRINTH (2006)

In post-Civil War Spain, Ofelia discovers she is a lost princess, and must complete three dangerous tasks to claim immortality.

THE SHAPE OF WATER (2017)

A mute custodian at a high-security government laboratory who falls in love with a captured human-like amphibian creature.

MUSICALS: APRIL 27 - MAY 3

Sometimes simple dialogue just won't do and you just need some extravagant musical and dance numbers to scratch your itch. Luckily, our three movies this week will do just that for you in spades with a Live-Action remake of a beloved animated Disney feature and two absolute classics featuring legends like Julie Andrews, Dick Van Dyke and Audrey Hepburn.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST (2017)

This live-action adaptation of the Disney classic stars Emma Watson as Belle, who falls in love with a cursed prince and saves him from a life as a beast.

MARY POPPINS (1964)

An elitist phonetics professor wagers that he can transform a Cockney flower seller to be presentable in London's high society.

MY FAIR LADY (1964)

A "practically perfect in every way" nanny uses music and adventure to help mend the relationship of two children and their stern, distant father.
