— STUDIO GHIBLI: DECEMBER 1 - 14 —

Get ready for two whole fantastical weeks of Studio Ghibli films. Since 1985, this Japanese animation studio has been capturing the imaginations of audiences everywhere. Its popularity is such that there is even a Ghibli Museum in Mitaka, Tokyo! Enjoy six beloved creations from the studio on the Row House silver screen.

ONLY YESTERDAY (1991)

A young woman, while visiting family in the countryside, finds herself increasingly nostalgic for her childhood self.

PRINCES MONONOKE (1997)

Prince Ashitaka finds himself in the middle of a war between the forest gods and Tataru, a mining colony.

THE WIND RISES (2013)

A look at the life of Jiro Horikoshi, the man who designed Japanese fighter planes during World War II.

PORCO ROSSO (1992)

The adventures of an WWI ex-fighter ace who has been transformed into an anthropomorphic pig.

SPIRITED AWAY (2001)

10-year old Chihiro wanders through a magical world of spirits, gods, and beasts that used to be human.

THE TALE OF THE PRINCESS KAGUYA (2013)

A 10th-century folktale, this hand drawn production follows a tiny girl who grows into an exquisite young lady.

— ROW HOUSE CHRISTMAS: DECEMBER 15 - 25 —

It's officially the Christmas season! What better way to celebrate than with four movies that range from a 1950's Bing Crosby musical to an 80's-tastic Bruce Willis blockbuster with terrorists at a Christmas party? We will also be featuring the Griswolds' misadventures in Christmas Vacation and Macaulay Culkin fighting off robbers in Home Alone!

CHRISTMAS VACATION (1989)

A loveable yet eccentric father whose determination for the perfect Christmas results in disasters of hilarious proportions.

HOME ALONE (1990)

An 8-year-old Macaulay Culkin rigs his house with booby traps to defend himself against burglars.

DIE HARD (1988)

A group of terrorists hijack an office Christmas party and one lone, barefoot cop must stop them.

WHITE CHRISTMAS (1954)

Your favorite Irving Berlin songs crooned by Bing Crosby with a goofy plot full of mishaps and romantic entanglements.

— STAFF PICKS: DECEMBER 26 - JANUARY 4 —

One of Row House's annual traditions is to go a little crazy the week after Christmas and simply let our staff select four films to screen—with no theme at all—that are near and dear to their hearts. What better way to ring in the New Year than by sharing our favorite films with our favorite people? Enjoy the 1979 sci-fi classic Alien, screwball comedy Bringing Up Baby, the sensationally bloody Inglorious Basterds, and newly restored The Iron Giant.

ALIEN (1979)

A starship crew awakens from cryo-sleep to investigate a distress call from an alien vessel. Terror begins when they find a nest of eggs.

BRINGING UP BABY (1938)

A paleontologist gets mixed up with a flighty socialite while trying to track down her pet leopard, Baby.

INGLORIOUS BASTERDS (2009)

A group of American soldiers hunt down Nazis and make their way to the ultimate prize - Hitler.

THE IRON GIANT (1999)

A boy befriends a giant robot from space, and must protect it from a paranoid government agent intent on its destruction. (New Restoration)
