≡ ANTONIONI: FEBRUARY 2 - 8 ≡

Michelangelo Antonioni is one of the greatest of all filmmakers. His innovative approach to storytelling rejected action in favor of contemplation, focusing on image and design, and helped to redefine the concept of narrative cinema. We're featuring two of his Italian classics: The iconic L'Avventura and his first color film, Red Desert, as well as two from his international series: Blow-Up (London) and Zabriskie Point (California).

BLOW-UP (1966)

During the swinging 1960s, a London photographer believes he inadvertently photographed a murder. Starring Vanessa Redgrave and David Hemmings.

RED DESERT (1964)

A provocative look at the spiritual desolation of the technological age—a disaffected woman wandering through a bleak industrial landscape.

L'AVVENTURA (1960)

A young woman disappears during a yachting trip off the coast of Sicily, after which her disaffected lover and best friend search for her.

ZABRISKIE POINT (1970)

On the run, Mark steals a private plane and flies off into the California desert. There he meets Daria, and they pair up and drive to Death Valley.

≡ LOVE...? FEBRUARY 9 - 15 ≡

They say love works in mysterious ways, and this year's Valentine's Week lineup is designed to make you laugh, cry, and maybe even feel a little awkward at times. From unexpected pregnancies (Obvious Child) to supernatural romances (Ghost) to rebellious brides (It Happened One Night) to Mortal Kombat style battles to win a woman (Scott Pilgrim vs. the World), we've got something for everyone, whether you're part of the "Love Stinks" camp or the hearts-and-flowers type.

OBVIOUS CHILD (2014)

A 20-something comedienne's unexpected pregnancy after a one-night stand begins a surprise journey of self-discovery and empowerment.

GHOST (1990)

After Sam is murdered over a shady business deal, his spirit stays behind to set things right and protect his lover, with the help of a psychic.

SCOTT PILGRIM VS. THE WORLD (2010)

Awkward but lovable Scott Pilgrim meets the girl of his dreams (literally), but must battle her 7 evil exes, video game style, in order to win her for good.

IT HAPPENED ONE NIGHT (1934)

A spoiled heiress running away from her family is helped by a man (Clark Gable) who is actually a reporter in need of a story.
