March 2018 Movie Schedule

— OUR FAVORITES OF 2017: MARCH 2 - 8 —

For this week we will be showcasing three of our favorite films from the past year including the visually stunning sequel "Blade Runner 2049," the hilarious adaptation "The Disaster Artist," which focuses on the making of the legendary terrible movie "The Room," and the poignant documentary "I Am Not Your Negro," exploring the story of race in modern America. As a bonus we will be showing the Live Action, Animated and Documentary Oscar Nominated shorts all day on Sunday.

BLADE RUNNER 2049 (2017)

A young blade runner's discovery of a long-buried secret leads him to track down former blade runner Rick Deckard, who's been missing for thirty years.

I AM NOT YOUR NEGRO (2017)

Writer James Baldwin tells the story of race in modern America with his unfinished novel, "Remember This House."

OSCAR NOMINATED SHORTS (2017)

Collections of Live Action, Animated, and Documentary shorts that have been nominated for the 2018 Oscars. All collections will be played on Sun. 3/4.

THE DISASTER ARTIST (2017)

Adapted from a book of the same name, Greg meets and befriends the enigmatic Tommy Wiseau, and they go on to create one of the greatest bad movies ever.

— SHAW BROTHERS KUNG FU CINEMA: MARCH 9 - 15 —

Infamous, adventurous, pioneers of kickin Kung Fu action - the Shaw Brothers! The Shaw Brothers defined the martial arts genre, made it famous throughout the world, inspired generations of children and the creation of Kung Fu schools throughout the world, and also pioneered putting women in lead action roles. The entire Shaw Brothers film collection was restored - and for the first time ever, Pittsburgh is showing them! Row House picked 4 films that define their masterful work. Fun fact, The OG's of action, they influenced Quentin Tarantino and Wu Tang Clan.

COME DRINK WITH ME (1966)

A group of bandits kidnaps the governor's son and demands their leader to be set free in exchange. Also widely considered the first movie with a female action star.

FIVE DEADLY VENOMS (1978)

The final student of a dying martial arts master is instructed to locate the previous five students and defeat any evil ones among them.

LEGENDARY WEAPONS OF CHINA (1982)

A band of killers from an ailing kung fu and magic society are sent on a manhunt for a former member of the society, whose bad mouthing threatens its existence.

THE 36TH CHAMBER OF SHAOLIN (1978)

A man studying at the Shaolin Temple fights back against the government. Widely considered one of the greatest kung fu movies and famously inspired the Wu-Tang Clan.

— SCI-FI FEST 2018: MARCH 16 - 22 —

This year's Sci-Fi fest stars a group of British teens fending off an alien invasion, a planet ruled by apes, a hacker duking it out in a digital world, and Mel Brooks doing a send up of one the most beloved movie franchises ever. Sci-Fi can delight audiences in numerous way through it's far-out characters, settings and social commentary filled plots.

ATTACK THE BLOCK (2011)

Watch Finn from Star Wars lead a group of London teens against an alien invasion in this action-comedy.

PLANET OF THE APES (1968)

An astronaut crew crash-lands on a planet in the distant future where intelligent talking apes are the dominant species, and humans are the oppressed and enslaved.

SPACEBALLS (1987)

Mel Brook's parody of Star Wars features memorable characters like Dark Helmet, Yogurt, and the lovable Barf. May the Schwartz be with you!

TRON (1982)

A hacker is abducted into the digital world and forced to participate in gladiatorial games where his only chance of escape is with the help of a heroic security program.

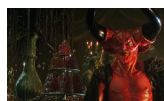

— TOM CRUISE BEFORE OPRAH'S COUCH: MARCH 23 - 29 —

Once upon a time, before the now infamous interview on Oprah, where Tom Cruise revealed to the world that he is in fact a crazy person, he was an actor of nearly unprecedented drawing power and the leading man of numerous huge blockbusters (not that he still doesn't star in big movies, but now does with a cloud of Scientology and insanity hanging over him). We would like to remember that time with this week's picks of some of his best roles before he jumped on the couch.

EYES WIDE SHUT (1999)

A doctor (Cruise) pushes himself on a dangerous night-long odyssey of sexual and moral discovery after his wife admits that she once almost cheated on him.

LEGEND (1985)

A young man (Cruise) must enlist the help of his elven allies in order to stop a demon from creating eternal night (Tim Curry, as the best cinematic Devil ever).

RISKY BUSINESS (1983)

Get your tighty whities and broomsticks ready for a story of a teenager running a brothel out of his parents' house for the night after wrecking his father's Porsche.

TOP GUN (1986)

"I feel the need, the need, for speed!" Fighter jets. Tom Cruise. Danger Zone. Shirtless beach volleyball. "Nuff said.
