May 2017 Movie Schedule

— ALFRED HITCHCOCK: MAY 5 - 11 —

Alfred Hitchcock is known as the "Master of Suspense," a pioneer in filmmaking, and a bit of an eccentric with a fetish for blondes and food. Despite his controversial methods, Hitchcock created films that truly stand the test of time which is a status reserved for few of his contemporaries. Enjoy this week featuring four of his most disturbing yet captivating films.

MARNIE (1964)

A wealthy publisher blackmails his assistant into marrying him after she is caught stealing. Throughout the marriage he slowly unravels her tale of trauma, sex, and murder.

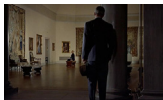

NOTORIOUS (1946)

Alicia goes undercover to win the affections of a Nazi hiding out in Brazil, but when her government handler also falls for her a dangerous love triangle is created.

THE LADY VANISHES (1938)

Traveling by train to England, a playgirl and a musician become a sleuthing duo to solve the mysterious disappearance of an elderly lady.

VERTIGO (1958)

A private detective is drawn into a web of lies, identity theft, and obsession when he is hired to follow a friend's wife and witnesses her death.

— MUSICALS: MAY 12 - 18 —

The Row House movie screen will be bursting with color in communion with the Spring flowers growing outside our doors. Featuring some of the best Technicolor has to offer, you won't find one drab scene amongst the star-studded lineup: fashion icon Audrey Hepburn in "Funny Face," the tap dancin' stylings of Gene Kelly in "Singin' in the Rain," a fresh-faced Judy Garland in "The Wizard of Oz," and the sweet melancholy of Catherine Deneuve in "The Umbrellas of Cherbourg."

FUNNY FACE (1957)

A shy shop clerk is picked to be the next "It Girl" for a fashion magazine. She is enticed by a trip to Paris and the attentions of a charming photographer.

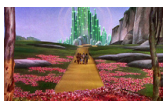

SINGIN' IN THE RAIN (1952)

A spoof of Hollywood's transition to "talkies," two silent movie stars must sing and dance their way back into public favor whether their talent is real or not.

THE UMBRELLAS OF CHERBOURG (1964)

The visually vibrant tale of the love between a young mechanic, and a beautiful shop girl is conveyed entirely in song.

THE WIZARD OF OZ (1939)

When Dorothy is whisked away via tornado to the magical land of Oz, she must defeat the Wicked Witch of the West before she can return home.

— QUENTIN TARANTINO: MAY 19 - 25 —

Quentin Tarantino once proudly proclaimed "I steal from every movie ever made." His film career has been a dual source of outrage and acclaim often stemming from his extreme use of violence, but also making him one of the most influential filmmakers of our time. This week features "Reservoir Dogs" credited for jumpstarting his career, "Pulp Fiction" which solidified his aesthetic of violence and nonlinear storytelling, and "Kill Bill: Vol 1 & 2" a bloodlust venture into martial arts revenge tales.

KILL BILL: VOL 1 (2003)

A former assassin known as "The Bride" wakes up from a coma four years after her attempted murder by an ex-lover, and thus ensues a revenge fueled killing spree.

KILL BILL: VOL 2 (2004)

The Bride continues to work her way down the hit list of those who wronged her leading to the final showdown with her ex-lover.

PULP FICTION (1994)

Interwoven and nonlinear storylines tell the tales of two mob hitmen, a boxer, a gangster's wife and a pair of diner bandits. Cheeseburgers and milkshakes abound.

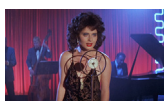

RESERVOIR DOGS (1992)

A botched diamond heist and suspicion of a police informant create panic and intrigue amongst a group of criminals.

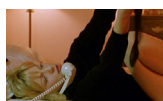

— THE ARTISTRY OF DAVID LYNCH: MAY 26 - JUNE 1 —

There are few artistic endeavors that David Lynch hasn't undertaken. The man has forayed into film, painting, music, literature, and even furniture design. This week Row House features one of his most acclaimed films "Blue Velvet," and one of his most infamous "Twin Peaks: Fire Walk with Me." Shedding light on his work as not only a filmmaker but as a painter is the Pittsburgh Premiere of "David Lynch: The Art Life" exclusively at Row House Cinema.

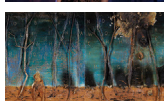

BLUE VELVET (1986)

The discovery of a human ear in a field leads an amateur sleuth to a mysterious lounge singer and a world of sexual corruption.

TWIN PEAKS: FIRE WALK WITH ME (1992)

Considered a prequel to the short-lived cult TV series, the last seven days of Laura Palmer's life in Twin Peaks is chronicled.

DAVID LYNCH: THE ART LIFE (2016)

Artist and filmmaker David Lynch discusses his early life and the events that shaped his artistic and creative processes. (Pittsburgh Premiere)
