— BONG JOON-HO: NOVEMBER 3 - 9 —

Bong Joon-ho is one of the most exciting directors to emerge from the Korean New Wave movement. His filmography functions as a sampling of genres ranging from monster mayhem to family drama. You'll find two thematic constants in his films—they're always dark yet hopeful; and they always pack a moral punch you won't forget. Explore three of his works this week at Row House Cinema: monster movie The Host, dramatic powerhouse Mother, and the Netflix sensation that shook up the 2017 Cannes Film Festival, Okja.

MOTHER (2009)

A disabled young man is framed for the murder of a teenage girl. His mother makes it her mission to find the real killer.

OKJA (2017)

Young Mija lives in the countryside with her best friend Okja—a large, friendly beast. But when Okja is captured, Mija is set on a rescue mission.

THE HOST (2006)

When chemicals are dumped into South Korea's Han River, a giant monster is created and, of course, it's eating the locals.

— PITTSBURGH CAT FILM FESTIVAL: NOVEMBER 10 - 16 —

Row House Cinema is hosting Pittsburgh's first week-long Cat Film and Cultural Festival. The festival's focal point will be an original production, Pittsburgh's Pretty Kitties, a collection of the funniest and cutest cat videos, hand-selected and compiled exclusively from local cat owner submissions! The rest of the week features an eclectic yet adorable lineup: Key & Peele comedy Keanu, charming documentary Kedi, and the animated Parisian caper A Cat in Paris.

KEANU (2016)

Two cousins must outsmart hitmen, gang leaders, and drug dealers to rescue their beloved kitten Keanu.

KEDI (2016)

Thousands of cats roam Istanbul, existing in a grey area—neither wild nor tame—yet they have become an intrinsic part of the community.

PITTSBURGH'S PRETTY KITTIES (2017)

A collection of the funniest and cutest cat videos, hand-selected and compiled exclusively from local cat owner submissions.

A CAT IN PARIS (2010)

A cat who lives a secret life as a cat burglar's assistant must come to the rescue of the little girl he lives with after she falls into a gangster's clutches.

— WHODUNIT?: NOVEMBER 17 - 23 —

You don't have to be Sherlock Holmes, Hercule Poirot, or Miss Marple to enjoy a week of whodunit mystery movies. Genre purists won't want to miss the 1974 version of Agatha Christie's Murder on the Orient Express, while modern enthusiasts will favor the Swedish film The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo. Clue and Who Framed Roger Rabbit? are surefire for a laugh or three.

CLUE (1985)

Ensemble mystery cult classic based on the board game of the same name. Features all three possible endings and lots of laughs.

MURDER ON THE ORIENT EXPRESS (1974)

Detective Hercule Poirot is on the Orient Express with a dead body and a group of passengers who all have motive for murder.

THE GIRL WITH THE DRAGON TATTOO (2009)

A discredited journalist and a brilliant hacker investigate the 40-year-old murder of a young girl.

WHO FRAMED ROGER RABBIT? (1988)

In a world where cartoons and humans live together, a toon-hating detective must help Roger Rabbit clear his name of murder.

— POETRY OF IMAGES: NOVEMBER 24 - 30 —

The holiday season has officially begun and we know you need to destress. For the sake of your mental health, join us for a week of four stunning works in which the images are the essence of the film. Get lost in some of cinema's most gorgeous cinematography from Ghislain Cloquet ("Au Hasard Balthazar"), Pedro Costa ("Colossal Youth"), Alexander Knyazhinsky ("Stalker"), and Kazuo Miyagawa ("Ugetsu").

AU HASARD BALTHAZAR (1966)

A thoughtful portrayal of the relationship between a sensitive farm girl and her donkey, Balthazar. Though they encounter cruelty in life they also find moments of beauty.

COLOSSAL YOUTH (2006)

After Ventura is forced to relocate to a housing complex, he travels between his two homes visiting his neighbors whom he considers his "children."

STALKER (1979)

In a post-apocalyptic wasteland known as "The Zone," two men search for a mythical "room" that promises to fulfill the inhabitant's every desire.

UGETSU (1953)

Two peasants desperate to achieve their dreams become entangled in civil war and the spirit world, but their loved ones are forced to bear the consequences.
